—Keep in mind the bazaar to be given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church Friday evening, Dec. 5th, 1913. Competent committees will be in charge of the several booths, and this will be a good opportunity to buy your Christmas presents. Committee No. 4 will have charge of the supper. Menu to be printed later.

—William Blum of Tionesta has lost his young beagle hound, aged about 8 months, and answers to the name of "Uno." The puppy is black and white and a little above the average size beagle. Mr. Blum is willing to suitably reward any one who can give him information that will lead to the recovery of his property.

—Everett Bean of Beaver Valley saw five bears Tuesday evening of last week crossing the neighboring farm of James Hunter, in the Hickory township. There were two old ones and three cubs. Having only a 22-calibre rifle with him at the time the young man made no effort to shoot any of the bears. They were tracked for some distance the next morning.

—The menfolk of the Presbyterian church will serve an oyster supper in the church dining hall next Friday evening from five to seven o'clock, and they extend a cordial invitation to all to drop in and enjoy a good feast. The men will have the assistance of some of the ladies in the preparation of the good things to eat, so that you may expect a fine supper. Go and take your wife and sweetheart.

—A large flock of wild geese became bewildered in their southern flight Saturday night and harbored on the island above town, from whence they took wings again in the morning and resumed their south-bound course. Efforts were made by some of our sportsmen to bring down one or more of the big birds, but without success. Monday night another large flock was heard passing over, and by their incessant gabble one might have been persuaded that there were a thousand in the flock. But geese make a big noise usually.

—Hallow'en occurs next Friday evening and there is considerable stir amongst our citizenship, old and young, as to what sort of grotesquery they shall don on that night of hilarious revelry. Heretofore the masqueraders have furnished oceans of fun for themselves as well as the spectators, and it is hoped this year will be no exception to the rule, but that the turnout will be funnier than ever.
—Contractor Holeman finished the Dr. Siggins well near Cashup Saturday and it was shot Monday. When the boiler was run after the shot there seemed to be oil aplenty, and the well is considered the best that has been opened in that section for a number of years past. It is amber oil. Mr. Holeman has a contract to drill two wells on the McIntyre farm, Harmony twp., and will move his rig to that locality this week.

—Mr. Finnegan, who is doing considerable operating in Hickory twp., this county, shot a well with 155 quarts of high explosive Monday and the response was very encouraging, the indications for a nice producer being very good. The well is located on Beaver creek near the mouth of Camp run, about three miles above Endeavor, on the Wheeler & Dunsmuir lands. It is 1344 deep and was shot to what is supposed to be the Balltown sand.

—The flood in the river gave our lumbermen a good start toward the Pittsburg market Monday, when Jobber Lewis Cook left here with eight barges and fourteen flats belonging to Collins, Darrah & Co. of Nebraska, and Albert Lawrence started with twelve of the big barges belonging to the Forest Barge company of Hickory. He will have four more to run later, which will finish up the summer's output at that place. The river is in fine stage and no doubt the big fleets will safely land at Pittsburg in record time.

—Washington B. Lyons, one of Harmony township's most highly esteemed citizens, died at his home on Fleming hill Sunday night, Oct. 19, 1913. He was aged 63 years, and leaves his wife and six children. The cause of death was cerebral apoplexy. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. W. W. Dale, were held Tuesday, and were largely attended by neighbors and friends. The burial was made in the Fagundis cemetery and Messrs. M. Tucker, Mack Wescoat, James Mooney, E. B. Head, Jesse Wright and Thomas Snyder were the pallbearers.

—A party of hunters composed of Hamilton Foreman, N. P. Wheeler, Jr., and "Boy" Anderson bagged a mother bear and a cub last Thursday in the big woods at the headwaters of Queen creek, Hickory township. Both were killed by Anderson, who got in range of the cub first, and when the mother bear, who was in hiding, heard the cries of her child she made a dash for Anderson, who had to decide between a real "bear hug" that meant death to himself, or kill the bear, and he had to decide mighty quick, too. He put three bullets into the big black furb before he could stop her, and when she did finally fall she was only six feet away from the hunter. The boys brought their trophies in feeling a whole lot elated over their luck in bagging such big game within a few miles of their homes.

Whitehill-Klinestiver.
A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Klinestiver, Sheffield, Pa., when their daughter Ruth was united in marriage to Mr. Ralph Whitehill, of Kellettville, Pa., by Rev. T. F. Phillips. The ceremony was performed at high noon Thursday, Oct. 13, 1913, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride was beautifully attired in white and carried a shower bouquet of roses. After a splendid wedding breakfast had been served, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehill left for an extended trip which includes the eastern cities and Florida. These popular young people carry with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

Among those pre-ent at the wedding were Mrs. Whitehill, Miss Emma Whitehill, Mr. William Whitehill, of Trumans, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. George Klinestiver of Kellettville; Mrs. Foster, Franklin, Pa.; Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mayburg, Pa.; Mrs. Brewster, Endeavor, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klinestiver, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Secor, Nebraska, Pa.; Miss Florence Klinestiver, Warren; Mrs. Edgar Healey, Bradford; Miss Josephine Porch, Miss Myrtle Lyman, Miss Frances Finney, Mr. Leslie Freck, of Sheffield and Miss Ethel Andrews, of Erie.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehill will be at home to their friends in Kellettville, Pa., after Dec. 1st.

Edinboro Alumni Meeting.
At the County Institute on Tuesday there was called a meeting of the alumni and former students of the Edinboro State Normal School. There were found to be seven graduates of the institution and a number of undergraduates who have been students at Edinboro during former years. A few years ago there were no more than two Edinboro students teaching in Forest county. These increasing numbers speak well for the work this famous school is doing. Members of the alumni in order of their classes are as follows: Miss Ida Paup, '90, Tionesta; Prof. W. N. Strawbridge, '90, Marienville; Prof. L. P. White, '99, Tionesta; Miss Clara Benedict, '11, Pleasantville; Miss Susie Baker, '12, Endeavor; Miss Ethel Boughner, '12, Endeavor; Miss Bees Sigworth, '13, Tionesta.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Evelyn Clark is home from Erie on a visit to her parents.

—Aubrey Felt is down from Kane to spend the week with Tionesta relatives.

—Vivian Foreman and son of Oil City spent last week with Tionesta relatives.

—Mrs. Samuel S. Haslet of Sheffield is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Arner.

—Miss Florence Klinestiver of Warren spent Sunday as a guest of Miss Marie Smearbaugh.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Offerle of Warren were guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Hunter, Sunday.

—S. E. Walker of the Warren Times spent Sunday here at the home of his son, R. A. Walker.

—Mrs. Bertha Zigler of Bradford is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mealy, in Tionesta township.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Clark visited their daughters, Misses Ethel and Hazel, at Meadville from Friday till Monday.

—Thos. Sibble of Green township, and Elmer Mealy of Tionesta township, were among our business callers during the week.

—Mrs. James B. Muse entertained large parties of her lady friends at her home Friday and yesterday afternoons at luncheons.

—J. F. Overlander and daughter, Miss Elsie, of Pittsburg, were guests several days of Tionesta relatives and friends the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gerow of Warren were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Fulton at the Central House, a few days the last of the week.

—Judge Siggins and Cyrus Helm of Tidioute were business visitors in town yesterday and gave the REPUBLICAN a friendly call while here.

—Mrs. Grinnelle and young son, of Orono, Fla., guests for the past week of Mrs. A. M. Donit, returned to their Southern home yesterday.

—James Elliott, of Stewart Run, has gone on an extended visit to his children, all of whom, except Miss Pearl Elliott, are located at Ottawa, Kansas.

—George A. McDaniel has sold the Tionesta bowling alley to Chas. Ginsberg of Cleveland, Ohio, and returned to his former home in Cochranton, Pa.

—Frederick William Bussman of Hancock, N. Y., and Miss Edythe Mary Horner of Trumans, Pa., were granted a marriage license yesterday by Clerk Maxwell.

—Mrs. M. Hallinen and Joseph Hallinen of Tidioute, Mrs. Wilson and Miss Ella O'Laughlin of Bradford, were guests Sunday of A. J. Hallinen, clerk at the Hotel Weaver.

—Glenn Ledebur spent Friday and Saturday nights with Prof. Gill at his cottage at Little Hickory. Mr. Gill entertained the Tidioute teachers there Saturday afternoon.

—Ernest Sibble is a juror from this community at the U. S. District court in session at Pittsburg. J. D. W. Reek returned last week from service as a grand juror at the same court.

—Miss R. S. Wallace and daughter, Miss Anna Wallace, of East Brady, were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. J. H. Derickson, over the Sabbath. They expected in a few days to leave for California where they will spend the winter.

—Misses Marie and Helen Smearbaugh entertained twelve last evening at 500-cure, honoring Miss Daisy Craig of Los Angeles. The function was in the form of a Halloween dinner, the table appointments partaking of the traditional charms peculiar to that wiled night. The favors were tiny cauldrons.

—Henry and Albert Youngk, brothers, of Tylersburg, have about recovered from operations for appendicitis at the Kane hospital, and last week, Monday, Mrs. Henry Youngk successfully passed through a similar operation at that institution, and at last accounts was progressing nicely toward recovery.

—J. W. McCrea is up from Reno to spend his annual vacation with old pals and to once more "try himself" in the game woods. The veteran roadrunner still has it in his head and limbs, but his shooting eye has gone a little to the bad, which, with the extreme scarcity of the birds, makes it up-hill work to get anywhere near the limit.

—Henry Brady, for the past five years a Washington state citizen with headquarters at Ostrander, returned last week to visit old Forest county friends for awhile. He is looking like a Pacific coaster, fresh and robust, and has accumulated the inevitable habit of a western booster with as much ease as though he'd been raised there.

—Mrs. Victor H. Barnett, who spent the summer months here with her mother, Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew, was joined by her husband last week and yesterday departed for their home in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Barnett's mother and grand-mother, Mrs. McKay will leave this evening to make their future home with her at the National capital. These estimable ladies have made Tionesta their home for more than forty-five years, and a host of old friends will sincerely regret their departure, but will wish them very many years of peace and comfort in their new home.

—Joseph A. Kelly, of Pittsburg, entertained his brother-in-law, Wilson Shaw, President of the Bank of Pittsburg, and his cousin H. E. Kelly of Philadelphia, at his pleasantly appointed Lodge at Oid-town, for a week or more, the outing coming to a close last Saturday, when the two first named returned to their homes, and H. E. leaving yesterday. They had a royal time, enjoying every waking minute, while their sleep was peaceful and their dreams sweet. Before breakfast camp they solemnly resolved to repeat the dose as often as time and opportunity will permit.

Recent Deaths.

WADSWORTH.
At her home in East Hickory, Pa., Sunday morning, October 20, 1913, Mrs. Lowrey Wadsworth passed away after a long illness, aged 54 years. She is survived by her husband and seven children. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon.

WHITEMAN.
Calvin M. Whiteman died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Kircharitz, in Warren, Pa., Friday, Oct. 24, 1913, aged 84 years. Besides Mrs. Kircharitz he is survived by two sons, Charles M. Whiteman of Renfrew, Pa., and Eugene D. Whiteman of Marienville. Funeral services were held in Warren Monday morning, after which the body was taken to Brookville, his former home, for burial. The deceased was a man much esteemed by all who knew him.

ZUCK.
George Oliver Zuck was born in Tionesta township, Forest county, Pa., Oct. 25, 1892, and died at Johnstown, Clarion county, Oct. 25, 1913, his twenty-first birthday. He suffered from a complication of diseases for a long time, but bore them with great patience and courage. He declared that he was ready and not afraid to die. He was a young man of steady and industrious habits, loved and respected by all who knew him. The funeral service was conducted Monday at Mount Zion United Evangelical church, by Rev. B. F. Felt, with interment in the cemetery connected with the church. He is survived by his aged mother, Mrs. David Zuck, and the following brothers and sisters: John Zuck of Johnstown, Frank and Wesley of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Samuel of Nickleville, Pa.; Mrs. William Kelly of Tionesta township, and Miss Carrie Zuck, at home.

DAUBENSPECK.
Mrs. John Daubenspeck, of Kellettville, Pa., passed away peacefully Saturday morning, Oct. 25, 1913, after a most painful illness of two years. She was the daughter of Andrew and Elizabeth Kelly and was born near Parkers Landing, Pa., but while she was yet a small child her parents moved to Kelly Hill, near Tidioute, and in that place she lived to early womanhood.

She was twice married. After her marriage, in 1885, to Mr. Daubenspeck her life was spent in Forest county, and while a resident of Gollitz she united with the Methodist church, although she was converted in early girlhood. She is survived by her husband and four children, Mrs. John Livermore of Crown, Pa.; Mrs. Vernon Amsler of North Baltimore, Ohio; Miss Kathleen and Paul R. Daubenspeck of Kellettville. One daughter, Grace, died in 1904. She also leaves two sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Lewis Kraer of Sheffield, Pa.; Mrs. W. W. Dunn of Port Arthur, Texas; S. F. Kelly of Kellettville, John Kelly of Mable, W. Va., and S. S. Kelly of San Francisco, California.

The deceased was a woman of simple christian faith and strong fortitude in pain and trouble, whose life was centered in her home and children. She was of the type so highly extolled in Holy Writ: "She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed, and her husband also, he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously but thou excellest them all." The influence of her life, so free from the "sounding brass and tinkling cymbal" of modern times, shall be felt when the deeds of more assertive workers are but dust and ashes, and the remembrance of her courage and patience in trouble and through years of ill health and seasons of great pain, together with her words of admonition will be a tower of strength to her children in their times of trial and temptation. Her children, yes, and her children's children shall arise and call her blessed.

The funeral was held Tuesday at her home, Rev. Henry Smallerberger officiating, with interment in the Tylersburg cemetery.

Thanksgiving Day.
President Wilson has named the customary thanksgiving day, designating Thursday, Nov. 27th. In his proclamation he says:

"The season is at hand in which it has been our long respected custom as a people to turn in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His manifold mercies and blessings to us as a nation. The year that has just passed has been marked in a peculiar degree by manifestation of His gracious and beneficent providence. We have not only had peace throughout our own borders and with the nations of the world, but that peace has been brightened by constantly multiplying evidences of genuine friendship, of mutual sympathy and understanding, and of the happy operation of many elevating influences both of ideal and of practice.

"The nation has been prosperous not only, but has proved its capacity to take calm council amidst the rapid movement of affairs and deal with its own life in a spirit of candor, righteousness and comity. We have seen the practical completion of a great work at the isthmus of Panama which not only exemplifies the nation's abundant resources to accomplish what it will, and the distinguished skill and capacity of its public servants, but also promises the beginning of a new age, of new contracts, new neighborhoods, new sympathies, new bonds, and new achievements of co-operation and peace.

"Righteousness exalteth a nation and 'Peace on earth, good will towards men' furnish the only foundations upon which can be built the lasting achievements of the human spirit. The year has brought us the satisfactions of work well done and fresh visions of our duty which will make the work of the future better still."

Following our last issue we quote these facts in the conclusion of the Teachers' Institute:

In addition to the instructors before mentioned, Supt. James J. Palmer of Oil City, gave the teachers two valuable and practical talks on Writing and Spelling. Supt. Palmer gave emphasis to his talk by displaying some real specimens of penmanship from the lower grades of his schools, showing what can be accomplished by proper methods and systematic teaching. He made a fine impression on the teachers as a most able and practical instructor.

Supt. Martin, McGinness and Dr. Troop continued their instruction through the rest of the week and were a source of keen interest to the teachers.

Supt. Martin gave evidence, from his masterful treatment of the different topics which he discussed, as one of the ablest educators of the country today. Amongst them was a discussion on the Monroe Doctrine, which is claiming the attention of the world at the present time. He gave a brief survey of its origin and history, its rise and recognition by the world, its status now and how it affects the policy of the United States at the present moment.

Dr. Troop of Toronto University was a valuable man to the institute. He is a typical literary man, cultured and refined, with the characteristics of a public speaker and traits of an Englishman thrown in. His talks were on the line of literature exclusively, with two short lectures on Sir Walter Scott and William Shakespeare.

Dr. Edward Amherst Ott gave his lecture on "Sour Grapes" on Wednesday evening. The line of thought was on the science of eugenics, in which he showed the evil tendencies of the present day to the transmission of disease to the children of the parents and the sure results of heredity. Dr. Ott held the attention of a large audience for one hour and fifty minutes without a single sign of uneasiness from anyone. Everyone speaks of his lecture as one of the best that was ever given in Tionesta.

The session on Thursday was a continuation of the instruction similar to that commented on during the earlier part of the week, each session being well attended and a lively interest shown.

The Metropolitan Musical Club entertained the teachers in the evening. This was an organization of six Chicago girls under the management of the Empire Lyceum Bureau of Syracuse, N. Y. The program consisted of orchestra music, instrumental and vocal solos, readings and quartette singing. This entertainment received the unanimous approval and commendation of everyone present.

The School Directors' Annual Convention convened on Wednesday and continued in session until Thursday noon. After effecting an organization by electing W. C. Imel, of Tionesta Borough, president, with Lewis Songer, of Marienville, and Dr. C. Y. Detar, of Kellettville, vice presidents, and J. R. Clark, of Tionesta, secretary, the convention proceeded to the regular program.

Supt. McGinness of Steelton addressed the convention on the topic of the three R's—Rights, Responsibilities, and Rewards. He gave a splendid talk, and was followed by Supt. Martin of Norristown on the subject of "Troubles."

The session was continued on the following forenoon, at which addresses were made by the same two instructors, including Dr. Troop.

The institute considered as a whole was a splendid success in every way; doubtless the best ever held in the county. The teachers returned home well pleased with the week's instruction and entertainment, with a new inspiration to continue their work for the rest of the year.

Kellettville.

Mrs. Burch of Frewsburg, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Tobey, for a few weeks. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Burch, of Warren, came down with her for a few days but returned home on Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Reedy was confined to her home for the past week with the gripe.

Rev. Henry Smallerberger visited his daughter at Rimersburg, Tuesday, and was one of the speakers at a banquet in Callensburg, Wednesday evening, returning home Thursday.

Marion Rupert of Porkey is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gillespie this week.

Mrs. George Klinestiver was a Warren visitor several days during the week and took in the Whitehill-Klinestiver wedding in Sheffield, Thursday.

Mrs. John Sizle and Mrs. E. A. Babcock went to Balltown Friday and remained over Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Y. Detar and son Reed, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Day and Mrs. E. Wilson and daughter Ruth autoed to Tionesta in the former's car Thursday evening and took in the concert. Chas. Daubenspeck, Willis Dunkle, Adam Shotts and Roland Carbaugh were down in the Daubenspeck car. Ora Kinch and Chas. Watson took their girl friends down in the Kinch car.

Mrs. Vernon Amsler and three children of Ohio have been here for the past week on account of the sickness and death of her mother, Mrs. John Daubenspeck.

The reception given by the members of the Men's Adult Bible Class to the members of the Ladies' Class, in Andrews' Hall, Friday evening, was a success in every way. There was a good representation of both classes there and the supper served wholly by the men was a good one and well served. The classes are both in a prosperous condition, the men having 45 members, while the ladies number 58.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson and son William of North Warren are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sizle and other relatives this week.

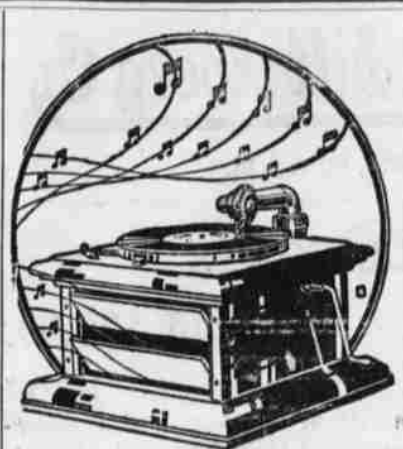

Mrs. Fred McNaughton was up from Nebraska, Friday, the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Dotterer.

Mrs. Rudolph has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Len Barnes, for the past week.

Jay Catlin has employment in Buffalo, N. Y., and expects to move his family to that place in the near future.

R. W. Whitehill is taking a three weeks' honeymoon trip in the south and will be at home with his wife in Mrs. Mary Flynn's house for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Catlin and children of Sheffield visited the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Tobey, over Sunday.

It Is By No Means Certain

That because Boys' Clothing looks well when it is new it will look well after it has been worn a little. The very fact that Boys' Clothing DOES look well after continued wear is what distinguishes it from the common kind. It does not fade; it retains its shape. The "Style" is there because the value was there in the first place. And in a general way, the same is true of all the goods we sell. It is a characteristic of the store.

Boys' Suits $3.00

7 to 16 sizes—made from heavy weight dark mixed all wool cloths. You notice we state all wool. You can hardly buy the cloth and trimmings say nothing about making, but they are all double-breasted styles, no Norfolk, but they will make a crack-a-jack school suit at this price.

Boys' Suits $5.00

With two pair knickerbocker trousers, 6 to 18 sizes—the very best values ever sold as the suits are Norfolk styles and cloth is heavy weight in all the pleasing and stylish shades.

And for the parent who wishes to pay from $6 to $12 for a boy's suit we are showing some exceptional values in sizes from 7 to 18 in short trousers.

Boys' Overcoats

Next on the list, and chinchilla is it in all colors—we have them for the tad of 3 and for the young fellow at 20—all prices, kinds and colors, $5.00 to $20.00.
